Deputies' Meeting

Tuesday, 13 January 1953

PRESENT: General Smith, Messrs. Dulles, Wisner, Hedden, Becker, Col. White.

Mr. Dulles:

a. Drew the DCI's attention to a cable [] regarding the Director's appointment as Under Secretary of State and the announcement of the Jackson Committee and asked DD/P to determine whether this cable should be sent to additional stations other than those listed thereon.

b. Reported that he and [] had a very successful meeting with the JCS on the matter which [] recently discussed with certain individuals in Europe at our request.

Mr. Wisner:

a. Stated that the CIA Command Relationship paper had been forwarded to the Director. Mr. Dulles noted that he now had the paper; however, he had not had an opportunity to make any comments. The Director stated he would have to defer action until his return from New York.

b. Reported that [] one of our employees, had indicated to him that during his previous employment in the Security Office of the Department of State he had been given the task of reviewing files of U.S. personnel assigned to the UN. Mr. Wisner went on to say that State had taken a position that it had not, in fact, been responsible for reviewing these files and, therefore, had requested that [] be made available to discuss this matter with appropriate officials in the Department. The Director stated there was no reason why [] should not do this and it was incumbent upon [] to state the facts in this case as he saw them.

Mr. Wisner (Cont'd.)

d. Noted a cable from the Senior Representative, [redacted] concerning CIA relations with [redacted] and, after some discussion, the Director stated we should proceed on this matter with caution and reconsider at a later date. [redacted] DD/P undertook to so advise [redacted].
